Spartan Motors to Exhibit at World Money Show

February 1, 2005

CHARLOTTE, Mich., Feb. 1 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Spartan Motors, Inc. (Nasdaq: SPAR) today announced it will be exhibiting at the World Money Show (<http://www.moneyshow.com>) on Feb. 2-5 in Orlando, Fla.

The Charlotte, Mich.-based manufacturer of custom motorhome chassis, fire truck chassis and emergency-rescue vehicles said it will be exhibiting in booth #525 and presenting the Company's story to financial advisors and high net-worth individual investors.

According to the Money Show, more than 12,000 individual investors and traders have already registered for the show at the Gaylord Palms Resort. Investors will travel from all 50 States and over 60 countries to attend educational workshops and panel discussions led by over 100 of the top performing and most quoted investment and trading newsletter editors, independent analysts, financial advisors and money managers.

"We are excited about this show and the chance to tell our story to individual investors, many of whom will understand on a consumer level the value of our products in the RV and emergency rescue markets," said John Szykiel, CEO of Spartan Motors. "Additionally, we will have an opportunity to increase Spartan's presence among retail investors to strengthen and diversify our shareholder base."
