

The Shyft Group Board Member Michael Dinkins Honored by Savoy Magazine

January 26, 2022

Dinkins, a board member since 2020, was named one of the most influential Black corporate directors for his exceptional, multi-industry financial expertise.

NOVI, Mich., Jan. 26, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- The Shyft Group (NASDAQ: SHYF), the North American leader in specialty vehicle manufacturing, assembly, and upfit for the commercial, retail, and service specialty vehicle markets, is proud to announce that Board of Directors member Michael Dinkins was named one of Savoy magazine's 2021 Most Influential Black Corporate Directors. Savoy magazine is a quarterly, national publication that showcases and drives positive dialogue on and about Black culture.

Dinkins, who joined Shyft's Board of Directors in December 2020 and chairs the Audit Committee, has nearly three decades of executive financial leadership experience, having served as Chief Financial Officer and Chief Executive Officer at several publicly traded companies. Certified by the National Association of Corporate Directors, Dinkins has served on the boards of five publicly traded companies. He is currently President and Chief Executive Officer of Dinkins Financial, which he founded in 2017 to assist private equity firms in building portfolios through acquisitions.

"Michael has a long track record of financial acumen and leadership across multiple industries, and this recognition by Savoy is incredibly well-deserved," said James Sharman, Chair of the Board at Shyft. "We have an exciting future and we appreciate Michael's continuing expert counsel and wealth of knowledge guiding us forward."

Dinkins earned a Bachelor of Science in Financial Administration from Michigan State University and later obtained CPA and CMA licenses. He graduated with honors from General Electric's Financial Management Program, serving as an instructor for five years during his 17-year career.
