

Utilimaster Drives Home Leading Last Mile Delivery Products

October 26, 2020

Home Delivery World goes virtual, provides Utilimaster opportunity to showcase latest last mile fleet vehicles

NOVI, Mich., Oct. 26, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Utilimaster, a go-to-market brand of The Shyft Group's Fleet Vehicles & Services business unit (NASDAQ: SHYF) ("Shyft" or the "Company"), the North American leader in specialty vehicle manufacturing, assembly, and upfit for the commercial, retail, and service specialty vehicle markets, continues to meet the growing home delivery fleet vehicle demand with their purpose-built last mile delivery class 1-7 vehicles.

Utilimaster's product line includes walk-in vans, cargo van upfits, and truck bodies. Attendees of Home Delivery World will have access to exclusive Utilimaster content and virtual one-on-one opportunities with Utilimaster sales team members to learn more about Utilimaster's fleet solutions.

Leading e-commerce and home delivery companies, including grocers will find Utilimaster advantages include:

- Availability across chassis manufacturers and vehicle classes from GVWR 1-7
- Customized upfits that increase driver and vehicle efficiency and safety
- More than four decades of last mile delivery experience
- Consultative sales approach, Work-Driven Design®, that focuses on meeting the individual challenges of each customer
- Customizations such as refrigeration, chassis electrification, and other alternative fuel vehicles

The flexibility of the Utilimaster lineup allows retailers and parcel delivery companies alike to create fleets around their specific customers' delivery needs. The full suite of Utilimaster delivery vehicles incorporates safe, ergonomic designs that deliver optimal driver productivity across a variety of cargo load and capacity specifications.

"Home delivery has become an essential part of today's retail business as consumers continue to choose online shopping, based on its ease and convenience," said Chad Heminover, President, Fleet Vehicles & Services, The Shyft Group. "Utilimaster is well positioned to support our customers as they serve theirs, and we're continuing to add innovative products to the market that best meet our customers' demands. We are excited to introduce our latest vehicles ideal for last mile deliveries that feature exceptional cargo capacity, fuel efficiency, and low cost of ownership."

Home Delivery World—an expo and conference for retailers looking to optimize their business through supply chain, logistics, fulfillment, warehousing and transportation—will be hosted virtually from October 27-30, 2020.
